In the coming months, Thrun Law Firm is offering four dates for training focused on important labor and employment law topics school officials frequently encounter where missteps may result in legal liability. These trainings are for K-12 and central office administrators who are new to the job as well as those veterans who may just want/need a refresher. Join Thrun Law Firm as we cover important labor and employment topics and discuss common traps and pitfalls.

To register for one or more of these webinars, please check which webinar you are interested in attending, complete the contact information below, and return this form to CBila@ThrunLaw.com. Each attendee will receive an email with a Zoom link to the event after the order form has been processed.
